PATENT NO : 7,519,386
DATED: April 14, 2009
INVENTOR(S) : KESPOHL, et al.
TITLE : Mobile Communication Device and Method of Operation Having Music Player Navigation Function

It is certified that error appears in the above-identified patent and that said Letters Patent are hereby corrected as shown below:

1. The Abstract in the patent does not correspond to the Abstract originally filed in applicant's Preliminary Amendment filed on December 2, 2004. Please remove said Abstract and replace with the following Abstract of the Disclosure:

--The invention relates to a mobile communication device including a music player and a method of its operation. In order to improve the usability and to speed the controlling of the implemented music player, a advantageous keyboard layout including a multiple switch is provided. The multiple switch is dedicated to control device applications as well as the music player. Therefore, a mode selector is additionally included to switch the into different input mode allowing to input commands by the multiple switch dedicated to the device applications or the music player, respectively, corresponding to the selected input mode. Additionally, the coloring of the symbol printing on the multiple switch and the mode selector is adapted to the key assignments corresponding to the different input mode to height the visible differentiation from the balance of the keyboard and to lead a user operating the multiple switch.--

2. At column 16, line 1, claim 15, line 16, please remove the word "players" and replace with the word --player--.
